

RCGU040 - Canggu Area

An Idyllic 3 Bedroom with Tropical Pool Villa in Canggu

This villa is a two-level vacation residence that epitomizes a well-balanced fusion of contemporary and traditional, as well as urban and rustic design elements. Making full use of the property's compact space, interiors are appointed with finely finished ornate, weathered wood furnishings, adorned with color coordinated patterns as well as Asian and Oriental illustrations, complemented with indigenous art pieces and figurines. Amenities are top of the line for total satisfaction. At the heart of Canggu's famous rice terraces, it presents modern comfort in a prevailing mood of true serenity.

The villa has three bedrooms. The master bedroom opens out to the edge of the swimming pool. Two other bedrooms are on the villa's upper level. These bedrooms open out to a shared balcony as well as to a roof deck with a bale furnished with a semi-circular day bed. Overlooking the swimming pool, the garden as well as the outlying rice terraces, the roof deck is perfect for breezy cocktail parties especially at sunset. On the villa's airy, semi-open ground level – perpendicular to the swimming pool – is the living area with its cushioned, wooden benches facing a wall-mounted, widescreen TV. Here, you can all converge for the much-awaited next episode of the newest hit series. Or, for a rerun of your best-loved classic film. Just behind one of the benches is the dining area. On its solid wood table that accommodates six, you can indulge in authentic Balinese specialties – as well as foreign fare – freshly cooked by the resident chef at the fully-equipped, modern kitchen alongside the dinner table.
