several gardens and six generously proportioned bedrooms, four of which have their own veranda or garden for when you need some peace and quiet on your own.
The villa has been designed to combine traditional Balinese architecture, with the high grass-roofed ceilings, coconut pillars and pool bales that typify this timeless and beautiful tradition, with the more modern touches that you would expect from a villa of this calibre.
Granite topped kitchen surfaces, stainless steel bathroom fittings and recessed lighting blend seamlessly with local palimanan stone, intricately carved wooden doors and Balinese temples.
The villa is perched above the spectacular countryside of the fashionable Bukit Peninsula, taking full advantage of the breathtaking ocean views for which it is famous. The Bukit is the perfect location, far enough away from the traffic and tourist hustle and bustle of Kuta and Seminyak, yet minutes from the well-known beaches, trendy beach clubs, five star resorts, fantastic cliff-top bars and restaurants that are close by.
World famous surf breaks at Padang Padang, Impossible, Bingin and Uluwatu are all within 10 minutes. Supermarkets, shops, golf course and international school are also within easy reach.
